 Others present: Clerk Gilbert, Doug Crane, Jay Irwin
 Absent: Mayor Patterson
 Guests: Dave Pernet-Westfield Republican

Deputy Mayor Isaac Gratto opened the public hearing and regular board meeting at 7:02 pm.

April Minutes tabled until June.

SEWER

Brandon has finished all courses. His ABC testing will be late June.
 Composting grant information was submitted.
 Study is being done to lease wind turbines to reduce utility cost. Northern Power
 Jay suggested a water sewer rate increase of .50 per 100 cu. ft., an estimated average increase of revenue for water of about $8,000 and about $7,500 for sewer per year. This would be $4.18 average increase per customer per month. The budget would need to be amended. Public Hearing needs to be scheduled.

STREETS/WATER

Sidewalks on Church St. will be done soon. East St. and Kendrick St. will be done also.
 When town is doing Pelton Rd. village will work on Kendrick St. and lower Miller St. paving.
 USDA loan/grant for snow blower needs to be decided so that we can move on.
 Meter replacement with new digital meters will be considered as the information is available.
 County is moving forward with the village water system. No other information is available.
 Jay stated that there has been a sewage back up on Main St. between the doctor office and service station.
